'This number contains several articles of interest and value. '-North-China Herald. The China Review for September-October. fully maintains the high standard excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readuble number. Moteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Poking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hus," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.' - North-China

Daily News.

all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'-Chrysanthemum, 'The November-December number of the China Review contains loss variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinose" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. Ballour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which

"On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number.'-H.K. Daily Press,

'A substantial and reliable Review which Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature. antiquities, and social developments; to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Oustoms' corps, and the missionary body among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assidnously cultivated, creditable to their respective authors and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Sn Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowrs, is not only historically valuable, but it also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that Notes' and 'Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zoal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predeoeasor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to haure

> ORICKET. UNITED SERVICES V. STRAITS TEAM. This match was commenced on the Cricket Ground to-day. The weather was quite a contrast to that of Friday and Saturday last week, being very gloomy There was a slight drizzle in the forenoon, not sufficient to stop play but enough t make things very disagreeable for the players. It was intended to play twelve a-side, but other arrangements had to be made afterwards. Captain Davidson, who was to play for the Services, having been incapacitated by getting a nasty knock over the oye from an unexpected ball during practice, just before the match began, the team was reduced to eleven, and as one of the Straits Team did not turn up, it was decided to play eleven a-aide. The Services, having won the toss, elected to bat first, and on the whole they made rather a poor show of their total being only 72, of which E. M. Blair contributed 35. The Straits Team; however, did not reach that figure, being disposed of for 56. The Services went in again, and when play was stopped at five o'clock 67 had been put together. Fox took five of the Services' wickets in the first innings for twenty rune, and in

Only a run or two had been added when Champain repeated Campbell's performance by playing a ball into Stewart's hands (8-2-4.) Hutchison and Blair then became partners. The R. E. man began acoring by hitting Birch away to the Murray Barracks compound for five, following this up by driving course, whether they would get the subsidy | Hornby's second ball for four. Dr Fox after a few overs replaced Hornby at the North Barracks end. After a few runs had been put on. Hutchison was run out (40-3-5.)
